

The Freedom Tour: A Documentary

One of the 31 films that will be screened at the 1st Documentary Film Festival in Belleville, on March 2nd and 3rd, will be The Freedom Tour. If you don't know this film, co-produced by People First of Canada and the NFB, about a tour of some of Western Canada's institutions for people with intellectual disabilities, you will want to come out to see it, especially. The 55 minute film is scheduled for 4pm Friday March 2nd at The Core Centre in downtown Belleville. The film will be introduced by local self-advocate, Theresa Somerton. The screening is sponsored by Community Living Belleville and Area.

We hope to see a big crowd to lend support. (See related links on this website for more details.)
