

March 2 & 3, 2012

Announcing Downtown DocFest website with film descriptions and the schedule to help you plan what to watch over the two days of outstanding films that celebrate life and human dignity around the globe and right here at home.

Highlights

Friday Gala Music from the Big House, Q & A and a concert by blues legend Rita Chiarelli, the star of the film

Saturday Gala If I Should Fall, Chief of the Defense Staff General Walter Natynczyk will be attending

Over 30 films shown on four different screens from noon Friday March 2nd until 9pm Saturday

Local filmmaker Michael Brethour's The Faces of Cancer - you may know the calendar, now see & hear their stories

Just released Pink Ribbons Inc. - the author of the book, Samantha King, will be in attendance for a Q & A after the film

West Wind: The Vision of Tom Thomson - an art film at the art gallery

Travel the world with films set in China, Israel, Afghanistan, the Congo, India, USA, UK, and Brazil

Discuss human rights, the environment, food security, music, drugs, globalization, mental health, slam poetry with fellow documentary film lovers and activists

$30 Festival Pass & $15 unwaged/student includes Galas and admission to all films

www.downtowndocfest.ca Films shown at the CORE Centre (Pinnacle St),